Today's Sermon

Children Psalm 127:3-5

³ Behold, children are a heritage from the LORD,
the fruit of the womb a reward.
⁴ Like arrows in the hand of a warrior
are the children of one's youth.
⁵ Blessed is the man
who fills his quiver with them!
He shall not be put to shame
when he speaks with his enemies in the gate.

Psalm 127:3-5 ESV

Abortion

By: Bryant Evans

Abortion is the most divisive issue in our country. The two sides no longer discuss the merits of their arguments directly but have settled into two arguments that they wield against one another. The current battleground is the U.S. Supreme Court which seems ready to overturn the historic decision in Roe v. Wade in 1973.

Not every woman who seeks an abortion is the same. Their reasons are varied. Further, in most cases, their decision is neither quick nor flippant. It is typically a painful decision. Women who find themselves with child feel as if they have no option but to terminate the pregnancy. Christians must offer options and solutions to the crisis of unwanted pregnancies. In this short article, I will assert that abortion is morally wrong and is sinful in almost every case (the mother's physical life is an exception). However, I want to avoid the strident, inflammatory rhetoric that marks the discussion. I hope that somewhere, one person will be persuaded to give birth to that wonderful child within.

The Law

The law is the moral minimum adopted by society. Most agree that legality does not equate with morality. Plessy v. Ferguson (1896) saw a near-unanimous U.S. Supreme Court rule that racial segregation was constitutional. This case gave rise to the infamous "separate but equal" doctrine in law. Fifty-eight years later, the U.S. Supreme Court would overturn Plessy, at least regarding education, with the unanimous Brown v. Board of Education (1958). What was right in 1958 was also right in 1896. Morality doesn't change.

In 1973 the Supreme Court ruled that there is a right to privacy in the Constitution which allows abortion. The late Justice Ruth Bader Ginsburg thought the decision in Roe was errant despite her own support of abortion rights. Roe, like Plessy before, may soon be overturned.

Any action's morality or "rightness" never depends on a court ruling or legislative act.

The Facts

The unborn is a person. At conception, a new and unique creation begins to exist. That unborn child (or zygote, embryo, or fetus) possesses DNA different from the mother or father or from any other living being (except, usually, an identical twin). Within the growing being, everything from height to hair color is already determined. While a child may "favor" one parent or the other, they will not be identical. They are unique.

This unique child, barring some tragic intervention, will be delivered and grow to old age. It only needs support and nurturing. The same thing it will require at 1 hour, one day, one month, one year, and so on.

Some suggest that abortion should be legal until the time of "viability," that is, until the child can live outside the womb. When is that time? Once, the Supreme Court said 28 weeks. Today, over half of all children born a month earlier (24 weeks) survive. It is not unreasonable to believe that that number will be cut shorter and shorter in the near future. Viability is not a reasonable basis for the legality of abortion.

The Question

Abortion rights arguments today reduce to two opposing points of view. Pro-life advocates assert that the unborn is a person and is deserving of protection. Pro-abortion advocates focus on the rights of the woman who is pregnant.

We are left with a question: What is more important, the life of a child or the mother's rights?

The Bible

According to the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention, 85.5% of women receiving abortions were unmarried.

The Bible is clear; sexual intercourse belongs only in marriage. The first lesson we should share is that God has a plan to prevent unwanted pregnancies. In 2022 it may seem extreme, but it is still true: Sex is for marriage only (Hebrews 13:4; Acts 15:29; 1 Corinthians 5:11; 1 Corinthians 6:9, 13, 18; Galatians 5:19; Ephesians 5:3; Colossians 4:5).

The Bible also views the growing child as a person. Observe the interchange between born and not yet born in these verses.

"Let the day perish on which I was born, and the night that said, 'A man is conceived.'" (Job 3:3).

"Before I formed you in the womb I knew you, and before you were born I consecrated you; I appointed you a prophet to the nations." (Jeremiah 1:5)

The LORD called me from the womb, from the body of my mother he named my name. (Isaiah 49:1)

Consider also Luke 1:41 – 44 and Luke 2:16, where the Greek term for "baby" is applied to the child still in the womb. And many other passages are similar.

Abortion is a tragic decision that we should seek to prevent.
